The Fujitsu TeamPad 7500W is a ruggedised mobile terminal which offers a large screen XGA touch display supported by the powerful Intel X-Scale® Processor and Microsoft Windows® CE 4.2.

Integrated Wi-Fi and Bluetooth wireless capability support seamless connection to a host or peripheral device; and with its PCMCIA and Compact Flash Card slots along with RS232 and USB ports, it can offer a wealth of expansion options for extra storage or connectivity.

With solid state media and a lightweight rugged case, it is tough enough to withstand usage in the harshest environments. Its intelligent Lithium-Ion battery lasts for up to 6 hours supporting the busiest work schedules.

The TeamPad 7500W offers users large-screen access to desktop or web-based applications whilst on the shop or warehouse floor, during doctors' rounds in a hospital or with field operatives completing forms in customers' homes.
