

Part III: Basic Approach to the Selection of Accounting Standards

As of the first quarter of fiscal 2014 Fujitsu has adopted International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) for the preparation of consolidated financial statements, for the purpose of having a single, uniform accounting standard for Group companies and improving comparability of the company's financial information in the world's capital markets.