Fujitsu Limited

Information regarding decision to discontinue issuing the Interim Report

Up until now Fujitsu Limited (the “Company”) has issued Interim Reports that have been delivered together with documents related to the interim dividend. After taking into consideration the enhancements that have been made to disclosure content on the Company’s website and the contribution to the global environment, the Company has decided to discontinue issuing the Interim Report effective this year. To review the materials on the Company’s financial results and the integrated report, please access them via the URL or QR code provided below.

The Company will continue its commitment to disseminating information via its website, and we ask for everyone’s understanding regarding this change.
