Editorial Policy

Purpose

The 2006 Fujitsu Group Sustainability Report describes the thinking, efforts, and accomplishments regarding the social and environmental aspects of Fujitsu Group operations based on The FUJITSU Way, the core set of principles guiding the conduct of the Fujitsu Group. More detailed information is available on the Fujitsu website. (See page 61.)

Intended Readers

This report is for the benefit of various stakeholders, including customers, shareholders, employees, business partners, local communities, public administrators and NGOs/NPOs.

Ensuring Reliability of Information

In order to assure the reliability of the information presented here, we consulted the following guidelines: the GRI (Global Reporting Initiative) "Sustainability Reporting Guidelines 2002," the Japanese Ministry of the Environment's "Environmental Reporting Guidelines 2003," "Environmental Accounting Guidelines 2005," and "Environment Performance Index Guidelines 2002." This report has also been reviewed by an independent body, the Shin Nihon Environmental and Quality Management Research Institute, whose independent assurance report is appended. Furthermore, the reliability of the environmental information presented here meets the standards for being granted the environmental report audit and registration mark stipulated by The Japanese Association of Assurance Organizations for Environmental Information, and this report has been duly granted this audit and registration mark.
