

Fujitsu Semiconductor to Rename Nine of Its Group Companies

- Effective July 1, 2010 -

Yokohama, Japan, June 21, 2010 – Fujitsu Semiconductor Limited today announced that it will rename nine of its group companies, effective July 1, 2010.

The company was established in March 2008 as “Fujitsu Microelectronics Limited” from the reorganization of Fujitsu Limited’s semiconductor business divisions. Since then, the company has provided semiconductor products and product-related services as the Fujitsu Group’s semiconductor business. As the company entered its third year of operations, as of April 1, 2010, it changed its company name to “Fujitsu Semiconductor Limited” to clarify that its business activities are in semiconductor-related products and services. In association with this corporate name change, nine of Fujitsu Semiconductor’s group companies will change their company names, aiming at gaining greater recognition from customers in the global marketplace.

1. New Company Names
