

FUJITSU Guiding Principles of Respect for Human Rights in Employment (Full Text)

With a view to realizing our growth and profits, respect for human rights must be an integral part of our business culture. FUJITSU is committed to creating a culture in which employees respect the dignity and worth of individuals.

To this end, FUJITSU will strive to foster respect for human rights in all the countries and regions where we operate our business while providing an environment that encourages employees to understand and realize importance of human rights.

1. Equal Employment Opportunity and Respect for Human Rights

FUJITSU strives to provide equal employment opportunities.

FUJITSU is committed to treat our employees with no illegal discrimination based on race, color, religion, creed, sex, social status, lineage, physical or mental disability, sexual orientation and any other legally protected category that is unrelated to the legitimate interests of FUJITSU.

2. Compliance with Employment Laws and Regulations

FUJITSU adheres to the applicable laws and regulations of the countries and regions in which it operates in treating our employees.

3. Prohibition of Forced Labor / Child Labor

FUJITSU will not use any form of forced or compulsory labor.

4. Work Environment

FUJITSU strives to achieve and maintain a healthy and safe work environment that motivates its employees.
