

Fact Sheet

Fujitsu Authorized Trade-In Program

Find out how much your old laptops and tablets are worth using the AnythingIT website!

Why not get the most value out of your old laptops and tablets when purchasing Fujitsu LIFEBOOK® or STYLISTIC® computers?

Overview

The Fujitsu Authorized Trade-In Program is designed to provide Fujitsu customers the opportunity of upgrading old computer equipment with the latest Fujitsu LIFEBOOK notebook and STYLISTIC tablet products. Receive cash back from AnythingIT® for trading in old tablets and laptops.

By participating in the Fujitsu Authorized Trade-In Program, old equipment will be put to good use in schools and other institutions. This easy-to-use program provides high resale values to maximize the return on functional units. This is accomplished by monitoring both domestic and international market prices, and negotiating with used equipment wholesalers based on large total consolidated returns.

AnythingIT has been a leading full service e-waste and IT Asset management solution provider since 1991. The choice of many corporations, organizations, government agencies, leveraging its GSA Schedule, as well as VARs, and OEMs, AnythingIT holds all major e-waste certifications including E-Stewards, R2, ISO 14001 and 9001 which enables an organization to utilize the best practice of the asset disposition space, thereby realizing controlled costs, the value of ROI, and the ability to mitigate risks via its Department of Defense Data Wiping standards that are traditionally associated with information technology products.

Benefits

- Provides cash back for old products of any brand, including peripherals
- Ensures old products go to good use such as in schools and other institutions
- Prevents products from going to a landfill
- Eliminates the fee required by many competitive programs to dispose equipment
- Ensures data security with Forensic Data Formatting Services
- Provides logistical services such as onsite packaging and removal
- Includes asset audits for larger quantities. An audit will be performed on each asset which will be reported back with all asset information, serial and model numbers, asset tags, and configuration
